

What's Being Said About Obama's Health Care Plan

“advocates of universal health care [are] troubled by the incompleteness of Barack Obama’s plan, which unlike those of his Democratic rivals wouldn’t cover everyone.”

The New York Times 11/30/2007 • Paul Krugman

“Mr. Obama...is wrong on policy. Worse yet, the words he uses to defend his position make him sound like Rudy Giuliani...”

The New York Times 11/30/2007 • Paul Krugman

“Now, in the effort to defend his plan’s weakness, he’s attacking his Democratic opponents...”

The New York Times 11/30/2007 • Paul Krugman

“Fact check: ...Independent experts think this [Obama health care plan] could leave as many as 15 million poor without any guarantee.”

CBSNews.com • June 3, 2007