

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

October 5, 2006

Dear Mr. President:

It has been a tremendous privilege to work at the White House and now after almost six years the time has come for me to pursue other opportunities. I, therefore, resign effective at your pleasure.

I am pleased to have been part of a team that has accomplished so many significant things for the American people and to have been a part of history. I have watched your steady leadership in times of crisis and I have been moved by your compassion towards others. I have never been more proud to serve you, Mr. President. I have learned from you and from others at the White House and I will cherish the memories I take with me.

I pray for you and your continued success as you lead our Nation during this time of war and challenge.

Respectfully,

Susan B. Ralston

:sbr