

You cannot undo the damage which you - unwillingly! - caused, but Cynthia it will be easier to carry that burden in the years to come if I am on your side.

Therefore, I am sending you this letter. It is up to you to make a decision.

Best regards,

Yours sincerely,

Ruud Lubbers

PS: While I know that both Naveed and Yacoub respect and care for you as they do for me, I take the liberty to share a copy of this letter with them even if it is personal and confidential. Their advice might be valuable for you.
