VI. PROBABLE CAUSE THAT EVIDENCE OF THE OFFENSES DESCRIBED
HEREIN WILL BE FOUND AT CONGRESSMAN JEFFERSON'S WASHINGTON, D.C. CONGRESSIONAL OFFICE

123. Based upon my training and experience, knowledge of the facts of this investigation and knowledge of records that are traditionally maintained in congressional offices, I believe that records, fruits and instrumentalities of the offenses cited herein will be found in Congressman Jefferson's Capitol Hill office.

124. The location to be searched, Rayburn House Office Building, Room Number 2113, Washington, D.C., is clearly marked as the office of Congressman William J. Jefferson. Based on my training and experience, I am aware that the office of a United States Congressman regularly maintains, for a number of years, records of activities, which include, but are not limited to, correspondence to/from the congressman, communications, faxes, notes and other forms of communications; logs and/or ledgers related to visitors received by the congressman; travel records
