

Don't Just Walk the Line. Protect It.

Take charge of your career.

The U.S. Border Patrol is looking for the right men and women to help protect America's southwest borders. As Border Patrol Agents, it'll be your responsibility to prevent the entry of terrorists and their weapons into the United States. You'll help detect and prevent the unlawful entry of undocumented aliens into the U.S., and apprehend violators of our immigration laws. In addition to these important duties, you'll play a primary role in stopping drug smuggling along our borders. Your initial job assignment could be anywhere along the southwestern U.S. border.

Beyond the satisfaction of helping to protect America, Border Patrol Agents get excellent pay and an unparalleled federal benefits package.

To qualify, you must be a U.S. citizen under the age of 40 with a valid state driver's license. You also must be able to successfully complete fitness and drug tests, a thorough background investigation and a medical exam.

Come work in an exciting environment with wide-open spaces and opportunities to match — consider becoming a Border Patrol Agent with U.S. Customs and Border Protection.
